EMC Media Education Consultant Post (maternity cover)

1-day per week

MPS/UPS, including inner-London weighting, with TPS

School holidays, minus 10 days pro rata

Start date: 1st September 2024

End date: 31st August 2025

The English and Media Centre is looking to recruit a practising teacher as a media education consultant on a one day a week contract for 12 months, as maternity cover. The role is designed to be carried out in combination with teaching in schools for up to 4-days per week. The post is office-based, at the English and Media Centre, close to Waterloo Station, London.

This is an exciting opportunity for a teacher working in media or film with at least two years teaching experience, who is looking to develop their wider understanding of media education alongside their classroom practice.

Job Description

Duties, depending on experience, may include:

- Supporting the planning and delivery of Media and Film CPD and conferences, both online and in-person.
- Using experience of working in the classroom to inform English and Media Centre work.
- Supporting work on the Goldsmiths / EMC Media PGCE
- Supporting with the editing and production of Media Magazine
- Supporting EMC in actively lobbying for media literacy in secondary schools.

Desirable Experience and Personal Qualities

Candidates should be able to demonstrate all or most of the following:

- At least two years teaching experience
- Good knowledge of the secondary media and/or film curriculum across KS4 and KS5
- Engagement in the fields of media and film education outside of the classroom
- High levels of print and digital literacy
- Flair for designing classroom resources
- Ability to write for a range of audiences with a good eye for technical accuracy
- Commitment to EMC's core principles.

Application Process

Please send a CV and letter of application, including two referees, to
